

Descendents of David Cowe (ca 1765 - unknown)
and Helen Sharp (1765 - unknown)

First Generation

1. David Cowe. Born Approx 1765. Christen in Hutton, Berwickshire.

The surname has various spellings: Cow, Cowe, Kow, Cour, Cowie, Cowan or Cowen. According to family legend--which has not always been very accurate--they were drovers from the Lammermuirs who came south.

No record of David Cowe's father and mother has been found, so this family genealogy begins with David.

No record of David Cowe and Helen Sharp's marriage has been found. But under Scottish Law a couple could be married "by repute"--legally.

David was a barnsman at Fishwick Mains, when son James was baptized 17 Jan 1804. (Hutton baptismal records.)

(Information on the names, births and baptisms of the children from research by Fred Kennington and Bruce Elliott.)

He married Helen Sharp, daughter of John Sharp & Alison Bowmaker. Born 1765 in Berwickshire. Christen 5 Aug 1765 in Edrom.

Helen Sharp had the following siblings: Mary, baptized 25 Nov 1764, Edrom; James, baptized 2 Mar 1767, Edrom; Alison, baptized 26 Feb 1770, Edrom, died before 1792; David, baptized 10 Nov 1775, Ladykirk; Robert, baptized 26 Jul 1777, Ladykirk; Elizabeth, baptized 10 Sep 1790, Hutton; and Alison baptized 6 Feb 1792, Hutton. Second Generation

2. Alison Cowe. Daughter of David Cowe & Helen Sharp. Born Approx 1793. Christen 12 Jan 1793 in Parish Registers, Hutton.

Not sure if date of baptism is 12 Jan 1793 or 12 Jun 1793. (sources IGI, Bruce Elliott, Oct 2007; and Fred Kennington, Dec 2007.)

No further information.

3. Robert Cowe. Son of David Cowe & Helen Sharp. Born 1794 in Hutton. Christen 18 Sep 1794 in Hutton.

Family legend says that the Cowe family were carters who carried stone for the building of Coldstream Bridge. We know for certain that Robert Cowe, born 1794, brother of William and James, was a carter at some time. (From Fred Kennington, Stockport, Dec 2007.)

Robert was a farm worker at Norham in 1826 but was back in Hutton by 1834. He was Robert the carter in Hutton in 1851.

Robert and Ann had four children: David, George, Robert and Helen.

He married Ann Crosby, daughter of George Crosby & Catherine Lockie, 7 Jun 1822. Born in Ford.

William had an irregular marriage on 10 Aug 1822 at Coldstream Bridge to Mary Learmonth. To do that was the romantic thing of the day. So they walked from Hutton down to Coldstream, got married, and walked back to Hutton where they were married in Hutton Kirk, having had a telling-off from the Minister. At that time, both William and Mary lived in Hutton Parish.

After their marriage William Cowe and Mary Learmonth soon moved over the Border into Northumberland where their children were born.

William and Mary lived with, or near, the Logan family, their daughter Alice's in-laws, later in life. It was John Logan who registered the death of William in 1882.

William's occupations were: 1822 Hind (farm worker); 1824 Labourer; 1851 Butcher; 1861 & 1871 Shepherd. All the family members were farm workers, or in the case of the Logans, farmers.

William died on 31 Aug 1882, aged eighty-two, then living at West Moneylaws, Carham. Cause of death - paralysis. (Information on this family was provided by Fred Kennington, Dec 2007.)

He married Mary Learmonth, daughter of James Learmonth (Lormount) & Margaret Dickson, 10 Aug 1822 in Coldstream Bridge. Born 1795. Christen 10 May 1795 in Nenthorn, Berwickshire. Died 9 Jun 1872 in Heatherslaw. Buried in Ford Churchyard.

The name "Learmonth" is very common in Berwickshire and Roxburgh, with varied spellings, such as Lamond, Lurmout. Mary's parents were James Lormount and Margaret Dickson, who were married at Nenthorn, Berwickshire on 25 Nov 1786.

Mary's siblings are: Robert, baptized 11 Jul 1787; James, baptized 21 Sep 1788; and Ann, baptized 16, Jan 1791; and also a sister Margaret whose birth has not been found.

Mary died 9 Jun 1872, aged seventy-seven, then living at Heatherslaw. Cause of death - 'old age'.

(Information on the Learmonth family from Fred Kennington, Dec 2007.)

They had the following children:

- | | | |
|----|------|---------------|
| 15 | i. | David Cowe |
| 16 | ii. | James Cowe |
| 17 | iii. | Margaret Cowe |

| 19 | v. | Alice Cowe |

7. David Cowe. Son of David Cowe & Helen Sharp. Born 1802. Christen 7 Jun 1802 in Hutton.

8. James Cowe. Son of David Cowe & Helen Sharp. Born 31 Dec 1803 in Fishwick Mains, Scotland. Christen 17 Jan 1804 in Hutton, Berwickshire. Died 15 Jan 1875/1876 in Harvey, NB. Occupation Farmer. Religion Presbyterian.

From Baptismal record, Hutton: James, son of David Cowe, barnsman at Fishwick Mains, and Helen Sharp, his wife, was born 31st December 1803 and baptised 17th January 1804. Witnesses John Service and Thomas Laing. (research from Fred Kennington to Bruce Elliott, Dec 2007.)

Married irregularly 17 Mar 1826 Hutton, Berwickshire and rebuked in session and had marriage confirmed, June 1826. (From the Church of Scotland register 745/4 of Hutton, Berwickshire. Research by Bruce Elliott.)

James Cowe and his wife Isabel Donaldson were living at Horndean when daughter Mary was born in 1833; and James was a farm servant in Hilton when David was born in 1836.

James Cowe, age 32, his wife Isabelle Donaldson, age 31, his mother-in-law Mary (Aitkens) Donaldson, age 50; and three children: Eleanor, age 7; Mary, age 4; and David, age 1 ½ yr., left from the port of Berwick-upon-Tweed on 28 May 1837 on the brig Cornelius of Sunderland and landed in Saint John, New Brunswick, Canada, on 12 July 1837. They settled on Land Grant Lot #15E (which is beside the Harvey Settlement Cemetery) and were among the first settlers of Harvey Settlement.

The 1861 Census indicated that the Cowe family had 45 acres improved and 55 acres unimproved land. Cash value of farm was 150 pounds, and value of implements was 10 pounds. They had 3 horses, 3 milch cows, 5 other neat cattle, 12 sheep, 2 swine and slaughtered 250 lb. pork. Produced 200 lb. butter, 40 lb. wool, 9 tons hay, 180 bu. oats, 80 bu. buckwheat, 2 bu. peas, 10 bu. timothy, 40 bu. turnips and 60 bu. potatoes.

The first Presbyterian Church in Harvey Settlement was built on the Cowe land on the corner next to the Harvey Settlement Cemetery. In Feb 1854, James and Isabelle Cowe in consideration of the sum of twenty shillings lawful money deeded land "beginning at a stake on the south west corner of lot #15 east side of the Great Road leading from Fredericton to Saint Andrews, thence running 121 ft. north along Great Road, east 90 ft. to a stake; south 121 ft. to a stake in the fence at the burying ground, thence west 90 ft. to beginning" for the benefit and use of "Churches in Connection with the Presbytery of New Brunswick adhering to the Westminster Standards in connection with the Free Church of Scotland and not in connection with the Established Church of Scotland." However, there was a division in the congregation, and in July 1854 a similar sized lot of land on the Matthew Piercy Land Grant Lot #14W was deeded to the "Presbyterian Church of Nova Scotia for a meeting house" and another Presbyterian church was built where the present St. Andrews United Church is located.

The Cowe family were members of the Free Presbyterian Church. Old records from this church have not been located and presumably did not survive the passage of time. The Cowe family births, deaths, etc. are not entered in the Harvey Presbyterian Church records which began in 1856. The first Presbyterian church in Harvey was built on the corner of the Cowe Land Grant adjacent to the Harvey Settlement Cemetery.

The surname was spelled "Cowe" in the early years, but after 1874 it became "Cowie". Death date for James recorded by his daughter Annie was 15 Jan 1874, however his Last Will and Testament was written and signed by James on 30 Jan 1874, and was registered on 1 Feb 1876, so his death date was perhaps 15 Jan 1876.

30. Mary Jane Cowe. Daughter of David Cowe & Eleanor Turnbull. Born 1846.

33. William Cowe. Son of David Cowe & Eleanor Turnbull. Born 1854.

William left farming and went to work on the LNE Railway as a platelayer at Christon Bank. They had four children, one of whom, another David William was killed in WW1.

He married Isabella Athey.

34. Robert Cowe. Son of David Cowe & Eleanor Turnbull. Born 1858.

Robert was a farm worker in his early days but left at age 18 to work on the LNE railway at Newcastle. He worked always on the permanent way and retired after 47 year service as Permanent Way Inspector at Tyne Dock. He was a very quiet, gentle man.

They had five children: Eliza Jane, David William, Annie Melvill, Robert Henry and Norman.

He married Margaret Waugh.

Margaret Waugh was the daughter of a quarryman in the area south of Berwick, spending part of his time at Holy Island. This had a significance later when Margaret and Robert's son, David William, had to work on Holy Island. With Island connection, David was accepted there when strangers were not. Holy Island has a fascinating social history as well as its better known history. Her family were always quarrymen or farm workers.

David and Ellen spent almost all of their married life at farms at Springhill or East Burton, Bamburgh, where David died in 1925. He was remembered in his later days as a tall man with a grey beard. 'He was a very nice man-

-by then he was also very deaf so much that he could not join in conversation when they had visitors. He dealt with his deafness by being an avid reader, and like many countrymen of the times, was exceedingly 'well read'. The Cowe family, in general, are tall--the genes being carried through the generations. (From Fred Kennington, Dec 2007)

David and Ellen had six children: David, Robert White, Dorothy Isabella Swan, Eleanor Turnbull, Robert Alexander, and Mary Jane.

He married Ellen Bolton White, 1887.

| 80 | iv. | Eleanor Turnbull "Nellie" Cowe |
| 81 | v. | Robert Alexander Cowe |
| 82 | vi. | Mary Jane Cowe |

36. Peter Cowe. Son of David Cowe & Eleanor Turnbull. Born 1863.

Notes from Fred Kennington, Dec 2007: " Peter Cowe is still a bit of a mystery. As a child the family lived near Ford and he attended Ford School. Lady Louisa Marchioness of Waterford, lived at Ford Castle. She was an accomplished artist who painted religious murals on the interior walls of the school, using local people as models. The identity of some of them is known. Peter was said to be one of them but there is no record. Family legend said that Lady Waterford spotted Peter's artistic talent and sent him to a London art school. He was said to have worked as an artist on 'Punch' and that he was an official war artist for the Boer War. I have not been able to confirm any of that. The only possible reference I can find to Peter comes from the 1891 census when Peter Cowe, born Scotland, with his wife and child were living in Stoke Newington, London. His occupation was Bullion Broker's Clerk. He has not been found in the 1901 census. If this is 'our' Peter he could have had art training in London but would presumably need a job. Working in a Bullion Broker's office he may well have been sent out to South Africa. I would love to solve the mystery of Peter. The records of Ford & Etal Estate do not refer to him."

37. William Cowe. Son of James Cowe & Elizabeth. Born 1851. Christen 7 Dec 1851 in Lucker.
