

Descendents of Thomas Herbert (1798 - 24 Feb 1862)
and Isabella Embleton (1804 - 16 Feb 1892)

Northumberland Ancestors of Thomas Herbert and Isabella Embleton

Thomas Herbert (1796 - 1862) was the son of Robert Herbert and Isabella Wanless.

No birth record can be found but we believe Robert Herbert, who was born about 1768, was the son of Thomas Herbert and Christian Crozer. Back in 1758 Thomas Herbert married Christian Crozer of Yetholm. The Kirk Sessions records state that:

‘Thomas Herbert of Kirknewton and Christian Crozer of Yetholm who gave up their names for proclamation in order to marriage 20th October 1758’.

Robert may have been born at ‘Whitehall’ on College Burn, a stream that flows north from The Cheviot. ‘Whitehall’ is in Kirknewton Parish and Thomas senior was ‘of Kirknewton’. It is an easy walk across the hills, and across the border, to get to Yetholm in Scotland.

Isabella Wanless was born about 1766 in Morebattle, Roxburghshire. Isabella’s father was George Wanless who is believed to have been born about 1727 at ‘Woodside’, a farm about 3 miles down the valley from Auchope, Roxburghshire and christened on 31st March 1728 in Morebattle, Roxburghshire. His parents were George Wanless and Bessie Cairns (daughter of George Cairns and christened 24th September 1696 in Cavers, Roxburghshire). A John Wanless lived nearby who was probably George senior’s older brother. They are possibly the sons of John Wanless who appears in in the Hearth Tax in that area in the 1690s.

George Wanless (1727) married Isabella Douglas, the daughter of Archibald Douglas and Margaret Hair, on the 20th May 1758 in Kirk Yetholm, Roxburghshire. Isabella was born on 10th May 1730 in Kirk Yetholm and died on 25th December 1796 in Auchope, Roxburghshire and was buried in Kirk Yetholm churchyard. George and Isabella had the following children:

1758 Archibald	married Mary Rutherford, died 1815
1759 Margaret	married John Henderson, died 1788
1763 George	married Janet Douglas, died 1843
1766 Isabella	married Robert Herbert, died 1831
1772 William Cowans, died 1838	married 1st Margaret Gray, 2nd Mary Cowans and 3rd Isabella

To obtain more details on the Wanless family you can look up their website at <http://www.riverduck.com/wanlessweb>.

Robert Herbert and Isabella Wanless had the following children:

1794 George	died 1st May 1845 at ‘Laingshill’, Elsdon, Northumberland
1796 Thomas	died Harvey, N.B., Canada
1798 Archibald	died 7th May 1850 in Great Tosson, Northumberland
1800 Robert	died 28th April 1849 at ‘The Craig’, Elsdon, Northumberland
1802 Isabella	died 10th August 1864 at Netherton, near Alwinton
1804 Margaret Jean	died 18th April 1812 at Earle near Wooler buried at Hownam, Roxburghshire
1806 Jane Alwinton	married 26th May 1828 to John Young of Leeds in
1808 Christian	married 5th November 1830 to George Gibson died 6th February 1887 at ‘Threestoneburn’ near Ilderton
1811 Andrew	born Earle, near Wooler, Northumberland
1812 William	born 4th August in Earle, near Wooler, Northumberland died 25th February 1876 in Diamond Creek, Victoria
1814 John	born Earle, near Wooler, Northumberland

It is probable that all the children, up to Christian (1808) and including Thomas (1796) were born at the property 'Whitehall'. Robert was farming at Earle, near Wooler, when his three youngest sons were born. Robert was listed in the 1827 land tax returns as a tenant at 'Rookland' near Biddlestone in the Parish of Alwinton. At the time of the 1841 census Robert (1768) was a tenant farmer and still at 'Rookland'.

Biddlestone is the ancient seat of the Selby family and Robert was a tenant farmer for Walter Selby of Biddlestone House. From the book 'Upper Coquetdale' by David Dippie Dixon first published 1903:

'The Selby's of Biddlestone in bygone times were buried in the Parish Church of Alwinton, members of the family during the last century being laid in the family vault beneath the chancel; but the late squire, Walter Charles Selby, who died in 1900, leaving an heir to the estates, was buried in a piece of ground, specially consecrated for the purpose, in a sweet sequestered spot, amid the sylvan surroundings of his ancestral park at Biddlestone'

Isabella Herbert's brother William Wanless (1772) lived nearby to her at Biddlestone where he was also a tenant farmer for the Selby family. Isabella died at 'Rookland' on the 29th October 1831. The following memorial inscription is on her grave in the churchyard at Hownam, Roxburghshire:

'Erected by Robert Herbert in memory of his wife Isabella Herbert who died at Rookland 29 Oct 1831 aged 65 years.
Also Margaret their daughter who died 18 Apr 1812 aged 8 years'.

Robert and Isabella's son Archibald (1798) was the miller at Great Tosson in Upper Coquetdale about 15 miles to the south of Biddlestone. He first married Ann Turnbull and secondly Margaret Davison. Susan (1847 - 1931), a daughter of his second marriage, moved to the village of Harbottle and was the postmistress there for 50 years.

In 1846, at 78 years of age, Robert died of 'natural decay' at 'Laingshill', near Elsdon, to the south of Alwinton. At the time he was an Elder of the Presbyterian Church at Otterburn. In the 1851 census his sons John (37, married) and Andrew (40, single) were farmers at 'Laingshill'. John and Andrew later moved further south to Durham. 'Laingshill' is named after Edward Laing (1689 - 1761) who was a landholder in the Elsdon area and in documents was always noted as 'of ye hill'. When he died his farm became known as 'Laingshill'.

Robert's place of burial is unknown. He was an elder of the Presbyterian Church at Otterburn at the time of his death. His son George died the year before, also at 'Laingshill' and is buried at Alwinton. Four years later son Archibald of Great Tosson was also buried at Alwinton.

Thomas Herbert (1796 - 1862) married Isabella Embleton on 11th June 1824 at Ilderton. The Bishops Transcripts record for 1824 states:

'Thomas Herbert, Biddlestone of the Parish of Allenton a bachelor and Isabella Embleton of the Haugh-Head of this Parish spinster by banns 11th June. Witnesses George Embleton, Elizabeth Reed and George Herbert'.

Thomas' father Robert Herbert was a tenant farmer at Earle near Wooler from about 1811. Possibly Thomas met Isabella at the Presbyterian Church in Wooler as both families attended church there at the time. In about 1822 the Herbert family moved to Rookland near Biddlestone and Alwinton.

In 1837 Thomas was a miller at Coldgate Mill which is situated on Harthope Burn just where it flows out of the Cheviot Hills to the south of Wooler and very near Haugh Head. In June of that year Thomas and Isabella with five of their children emigrated from Berwick-upon-Tweed on the 'Cornelius'. They settled at Harvey Settlement, New Brunswick, and that is where their last two children were born.

Isabella Embleton (1804 -1892) was the daughter of George Embleton and Margaret Davison. George was a joiner at Haugh Head having moved there from Longframlington. George and Margaret had ten children and Isabella was the second of them. George Embleton died in 1833 and his wife Margaret in 1836. Isabella's sisters Eleanor (23) and Elizabeth (18) and brother Robert (16) migrated to Canada with them. Isabella's brother William was married with two young children and also migrated (see William Embleton and Jane Runchman file).

We don't have a photograph of Thomas Herbert but we do have one of Isabella as she lived a long life and was able to see the birth of her great great granddaughter.

First Immigrant Generation (Thomas Herbert and Isabella Embleton and Descendants)

1. Thomas Herbert. Son of Robert Herbert & Isabella Wanless. Born 1798 in Alwinton, England. Died 24 Feb 1862 in Harvey. Buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery. Occupation Farmer.

Marriage: 1824. Ilderton Parish Bishops Transcripts: Thomas Herbert, Biddlestone of the Parish of Allenton a bachelor and Isabella Embleton of the Haugh-Head of this parish, spinster, by Banns June 11. Witnesses: George Embleton, Elizabeth Reed, George Herbert.

(Allenton was old name of Alwinton.) (The marriage information from Ewen Herbert of Victoria, Australia, who did research in England.)

Thomas Herbert, his wife Isabella Embleton, and their children Margaret, age 12, Isabella, age 10, Robert, age 8, Mary, age 3, and Christina, age 1 year; together with Isabella's sisters Eleanor and Elizabeth Embleton, and brother Robert Embleton; and brother William Embleton and his wife Jane and two young sons George and James Embleton came to New Brunswick on the brig Cornelius of Sunderland in 1837. They were among the first settlers of Harvey Settlement. Thomas's occupation on arrival in NB was listed as Miller.

Thomas first got Land Grant Lot #7W, first Tract, Harvey Settlement, 100 acres, and later added other property to his holdings. The 1861 Census shows that the Herberts had 300 acres of land--75 improved and 225 unimproved. Cash value of farm was 200 pounds, and value of implements and machinery was 15 pounds. They had 3 horses, 3 milch cows, 2 working oxen, 4 other neat cattle, 12 sheep, 2 swine, and slaughtered 350 lb. pork. They produced 150 lb. butter, 90 lb. cheese, 55 lb. wool, 15 ton hay, 15 bu. wheat, 300 bu. oats, 30 bu. buckwheat, 6 bu. peas, 5 bu. timothy, 12 bu. turnips and 80 bu. potatoes.

Daughter Christina, age 1 year, is included in a listing of the family after they arrived in NB, but the 1851 Census does not list her (she would have been about 15 years old), so perhaps she died soon after their arrival in NB or sometime prior to 1851. (No record of her death.)

Copied from article about Haugh Head, Wooler in local Berwick newspaper (contained in letter to Ewen Herbert, Australia, from Eric Herbert, Berwick-upon-Tweed, 9 Mar 2002): ".....Life in 1837 must have been hard. In this year William Embleton, who ran a joiner's shop at Haugh Head decided to risk crossing the North Atlantic with his young family to settle in Canada. Along with his brother-in-law Thomas Herbert from Coldgate Mill they joined the sailing ship 'Cornelius' at Berwick and with a group of other emigrants from Glendale and Tweedside made the hazardous crossing to New Brunswick, where their descendents still live, in a district named by them Tweedside."

(Information on the Thomas Herbert family was compiled from New Brunswick Census Reports, Church Records, Land Grants records, Marriage records, Birth records, death records, newspaper obituaries, cemetery gravestones, and research done previously on related families.)

He married Isabel Embleton, daughter of George Embleton & Margaret Davidson, 11 Jun 1824 in Haughhead (Parish Of Ilderton). Born 1804 in Branton, England. Christen 25 Jul 1804 in Branton Presbyterian. Died 16 Feb 1892 in Harvey. Buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery. (Believed to be buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery, but her name is not on gravestone.)

Second Immigrant Generation

2. Margaret Ann Herbert. Daughter of Thomas Herbert & Isabel Embleton. Born 19 Jul 1825 in Haugh-Head, England. Christen 22 Aug 1825 in Wooler Presbyterian Church, Tower Hill, Eng. Died 10 Jan 1913 in Harvey. Buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery.

From newspaper obituary - 1913:

Mrs Margaret Little

Harvey Station, Jan 13 -- Mrs Margaret Little, widow of David Little, and one of the oldest and most respected residents of this place, passed away on Friday morning after a short illness of bronchitis. She was in the 88th year of her age, but her mind and memory were unimpaired till the last.

She was the oldest daughter of Thomas Herbert, one of the first settlers of Harvey and came here with her parents from Northumberland, England, in the year 1837. She resided with her husband on their farm at Little Settlement for nearly forty years and about twenty-eight years ago came to the Station, where she made her home every since. Her husband died about twenty years ago. She reared a large family, only four of whom survive her. They are Mrs Wm. E. Smith and Mrs M. Briggs, of this place, and Thomas and Eben of Coburn. She is also survived by about forty grandchildren. A considerable number of great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. She was a woman of strong character and much more than ordinary intelligence and of very amiable disposition, and had a large circle of friends. She was always ready to help in times of trouble, both by word and deed and held a large place in the affections of the community.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended, despite the cold rainy weather which prevailed.

She married David Little, son of John Little & Janet Heughan, 8 Apr 1844 in Harvey Settlement By Daniel McCurdy, Presbyterian. Born 25 Aug 1816 in Dumfries, Scotland. Died 9 Oct 1892 in Harvey. Buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery. Occupation Farmer.

From York Co NB Marriage Register B 1837-1850 (PANB): Witnesses to marriage were Thomas Herbert and Robert Embleton.

David Little came to NB in 1832 with his parents and siblings, and the family first settled in New Maryland, near Fredericton. David and his brothers moved to the Harvey area in the early 1840s and settled on land in the Little Settlement area,

David and his wife Margaret settled on Lot D, in Coburn, and were farmers. David soon amassed a considerable amount of land--the 1861 Census shows that he owned or occupied 100 acres of improved land and 350 acres of unimproved land.

The 1861 Census shows David as 45 years of age, Margaret as 39 years, and six children ranging in age from 16 years to 3 years of age. Two servants lived in their household, James Embleton, age 25, and Sarah Arbuckle, age 20 years. They had one horse, 5 milch cows, 2 working oxen, 5 other neat cattle, 45 sheep, 3 swine, and slaughtered 600 lb. pork. They produced 150 lb. butter, 110 lb. wool, 40 tons hay, 30 bu. wheat, 600 bu. oats, 50 bu. buckwheat, 10 bu. timothy, 50 bu. turnips, 100 bu. potatoes and 40 bu. carrots.

3. Isabella "Belle" Herbert. Daughter of Thomas Herbert & Isabel Embleton. Born 1827 in Eng. Died 21 Apr 1902 in Harvey. Buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery.

Copied from a notebook kept by Ellie L. Skene, McAdam:

An account of Harvey early, early settlers, told to me by Mrs James Little, Sr., York Mills. She said in the early days she and one of her sisters used to carry butter and eggs to Fredericton 25 miles from their home to exchange for groceries, etc. They would start early in the morning run all the way there and back until they came to a hill which they walked up, in order to get home before dark as they were so afraid of wolves which were at that time. Fifty miles over poor roads was a very long walk for one day. She also said her father, Thomas Herbert, had the first window in his cabin, which was a big event. He cut the frame with his jack knife and got the two or three panes of glass in Fredericton.

Some of the farmers had to dig their potatoes up after planting for food. How very much we owe these brave uncomplaining first settlers in Harvey who worked so hard under such difficulties and made it so much easier for us, their descendants.

-- Ellie L. Skene, McAdam, 5 Nov 1959.

She married James Little, son of John Little & Janet Heughan, 20 Apr 1846 in Harvey Settlement By Daniel McCurdy, Presbyterian. Born 1814 in Dumfries, Scotland. Died 11 Feb 1890 in Harvey. Buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery. Occupation Farmer/Miller.

James and Belle first settled on Lot B, third tier, in Coburn, and later moved to York Mills. The 1861 Census shows James as 47 years old, farmer/miller, and Presbyterian. Isabella was 34 years of age, and they had eight children ranging in age from 13 years to 4 months. James Nesbit, age 19, cousin, miller, was living in their household. They owned or occupied 70 acres improved land and 80 acres unimproved land. Cash value of farm was 500 pounds, value of implements and machinery was 20 pounds. They had 3 horses, 4 milch cows, 4 working oxen, 4 other neat cattle, 12 sheep, 6 swine, and slaughtered 400 lb. pork. They produced 100 lb. butter, 48 lb. wool, 20 tons hay, 15 bu. wheat, 300 bu. oats, 2 bu. timothy and 60 bu. potatoes.

James acquired quite a lot of land. Listed are the Land Grants which he received: Lot B, third tier, 100 acres 1842/01/17; W of 50 Little Sett, 50 acres 1858/02/05; 49 on NE Br Magaguadavic R. 50 acres 1862/08/21; 171 Block 31, 200 acres 1867/12/09; and on NE Magaguadavic R. Victoria) looking for gold, but didn't have much luck. He became a teacher in the Beechworth area and married one of his pupils who had nursed him when he was very ill. He and his family later moved to Melborne where he went into business as a timber and wood merchant (firewood, coke, coal, etc.) at St. Kilda, Melbourne.

His daughters were well know teachers, and they are buried with Robert and his wife. Another daughter is buried nearby.

This family's history has been researched by Ian Herbert, a descendant of Robert's son Charles Goldfinch Herbert.

From newspaper obituary - 1915:

Mrs Mary Robison

The death at Harvey Station on the 17th of Mrs Mary Robison, widow of the late Marshall Robison, removes one of the most highly respected and oldest residents of this part of the country, being 81 years of age. She died at her home after a lingering and painful illness from gangrene. About four years ago it became necessary to have one leg amputated on account of this disease. In spite of this great affliction she continued to be quite active until about eight months ago, when gangrene became rooted in her other foot and gradually spread through her system, causing a very painful death. She was the daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Thos Herbert, having come here with her parents from England in the year 1837, when she was but three years of age. She was a woman possessed of great kindness, strength of character and executive ability, and never considered any task heavy when performed for those she loved. Of thirteen children, ten survive her. They are Andrew, William and Allan, of Harvey Station; Frederick, of New Haven, Mass.; Robert, Alexander and Kenneth, of Vancouver, BC; Mrs Robt. A. Little, of York Mills; Mrs John Dore, of Stockton Springs, and Mrs David G. Taylor, of Boston, Mass.

One sister, Mrs Jane Robison, of Harvey Station, also survives. The funeral services were held on Friday at her late home at 3.30 o'clock, the officiating clergyman being Rev. J. F. McKay, of Harvey Station.

She married Marshall Robison, son of Marshall Robison I & Jane Dickson, 1 Nov 1853 in Fredericton By Rev. Dr. John M. Brooke . Born 24 Oct 1824 in Hawick, Scot. Died 11 Jan 1897 in Harvey. Buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery. Occupation Farmer. Religion Presbyterian.

Marshall came to NB in 1842 with his parents and siblings with the exception of his brother William Robison who arrived in NB in 1837 with the first settlers of Harvey Settlement.

From York Co NB Marriage Register C 1850-1866 (PANB): Witnesses to marriage were Stephen Robinson, Mary Ann Shay and John Rutherford.

The 1861 Census shows that Marshall owned or occupied 75 acres improved and 330 acres unimproved land. He had one horse, 6 milch cows, 4 other neat cattle, 12 sheep and 4 swine. Produced 400 lb. pork slaughtered, 550 lb. butter, 46 lb. wool, 20 bu. timothy seed, and grew hay, oats, buckwheat, turnip and potatoes.

Her name was given as "Christian Herbert, daughter of Thomas and Isabella Herbert of Colgate Hill, Parish of Ilderton, born 14 March 1836" was christened 18 Apr 1836, Wooler Presbyterian Church, Tower Hill, Baptismal Roll.

It would appear that Christian was a common girl's name in the Herbert family in England.

Her name was given as Christina in the list of the Herbert family who arrived in NB in 1837.

8. George Herbert. Son of Thomas Herbert & Isabel Embleton. Born 9 Sep 1838 in Harvey. Died 25 Jul 1897 in Harvey. Buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery. Occupation Farmer.

Harvey Station, Aug 10 -- Impressive tribute to the memory of Charles Robison, one of Harvey's best known and popular farmers was paid by relatives and a wide circle of friends at the funeral held this afternoon at the village church of which he was a life long member. Rev. Ross C. Robbins, pastor, officiated at the services, assisted by Rev. J. Hugh MacLean, Saint John and Rev. A. MacKay, Norton, NB, former pastors.

Mr Robison's memory is honored among us because of the family name he bore, one of the oldest names in Harvey's history. But the presence of so many to do him final tribute speaks eloquently of the honor and respect toward the man himself. We join in expressing the comfort of our fellowship to the family now bereaved.

The pallbearers were Arnold Little, Cecil Grieve, Maurice Lister, Donald Knox, Alfred Dougan and Leonard Gay; flower bearers, Burns Little and Ersel Corey.

Interment was in the family cemetery. There were many beautiful floral tributes and telegrams of sympathy received.

Born September 10, 1871, Mr Robison lived all his life at Harvey and founder of the widely known Chas. Robison & Sons show herd of registered Jerseys which won numerous prizes at the Maritime cattle shows at Halifax, Saint John, Charlottetown, Fredericton, Amherst and St. Stephen. He was a member of the Harvey Improvement Association and was always willing and ready to devote his time and energy to forward any project for the welfare of the community. He was kind, sympathetic and generous and his loss will be keenly felt.

Mr Robison is survived by his wife, the former Miss Elzina Graham of Magundy, NB, whom he married in 1895; three daughters, Mrs J. Cameron Berry, Oak Bay; Mrs D. A. McAlary, Edmundston and Miss Elda, at home; two sons, Gilbert G., on the homestead, and C. Edwin, employed with Dominion Seed Potato Certification Division; another son, Gordon T., predeceased him; two sisters, Mrs John Saunders, Portland, Me., and Mrs M. S. Tracy, Edmonton, Alta.; one brother, Albert, Toronto, and five grandchildren.
