Descendents of John Scott (ca 1771 - unknown) and Susan Johnston (ca 1775 - unknown)

First Generation

1. John Scott. Born Approx 1771 in Wooler, Northumberland, Eng.

He married Susan Johnston, 17 Jun 1796 in Wooler, Northumberland, Eng. Born Approx 1775 in Of Thril, Northumberland, Eng.

They had the following children:

2 i. Jane Scott 3 ii. John Scott

Second Generation

2. Jane Scott. Daughter of John Scott & Susan Johnston. Born 2 May 1797 in Northumberland, Eng. Christen 7 May 1797 in United Presbyterian Cheviot St., NC, Wooler. Died 17 Mar 1871 in Harvey. Buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery.

Jane Scott, age 41 years, and her brother John Scott, age 39 years, carpenter, left from the port Berwick-upon-Tweed on 28 May 1837 on the brig Cornelius of Sunderland, and arrived in Saint John, NB 12 Jul 1837. They were among the first settlers of Harvey Settlement.

From Daily Telegraph, 22 Mar 1871:

Died Harvey 17th inst., Jane Hughan relict of late John Hughan, age 72.

From the 1871 Census, Jane Heughan, female, 72, Presbyterian, born in England, widowed, died February 1871, "General decay".

She married John Heughan, son of William Heughan & Agnes Beattie, 20 Sep 1845 in Harvey Settlement By Rev. Daniel McCurdy. Born Approx 1793 in Dumfries, Scot. Died 26 Oct 1857 in Harvey. Buried in Harvey Settlement Cemetery. Occupation Farmer.

John Heughan came to Harvey Settlement in 1841 or 1842. He petitioned for land and received a crown land grant (Lot O) along with 18 other settlers who got their grants in 1851 and was the only one who was not a member of the first group of settlers who came in 1837. According to tradition in Harvey, his daughter Jane (from his first marriage) was black so her mother had to have been black as well. The selection of middle names for his children (Francis and Angelie) almost certainly indicates an influence outside Scotland or England. Census records indicate daughter Jane and her mother were born in Trinidad.
