CLEGHORN

CLEGHORN ...The Barony of Cleghorn is of local origin in Lanarkshire , Scotland. The name goes back to c1203 A.D. The following is taken from The Surnames of Scotland by George F. Black. David Cleghorn witnessed a sasine (land transaction) in 1541. James Gleghorn was admitted burgess freeman of Glasgow in 1601 and another James Gleghorne is recorded in Coldingham in 1635. The home of the Cleghorn's is in the west of Scotland, but a group of families of the name flourished in the parish of Cramond for several generations, and Robert Cleghorn, farmer, at Soughton, near Edinburgh, was a friend of Robert Burns. Other spellings for Cleghorn are Cleghorne, Cleggorne, Claghorn, Gleghorne.

HOGG

HOGG ...The name Hogg was first spelled del Hoga and le Hogge. Hoga means careful or prudent. From that time on this name has been recorded in the history of Scotland. In 1024 Thurcyl hoga is one of the witnesses to a charter of Cnut. The Hoggs were of great prominence in Edinburgh in the fourteenth century. A Roger Hog was one of the most influential burgesses of the city of Edinburgh between 1358 and 1363 and Simon Hog as a burgess in 1402. In 1628 -1692 a Thomas Hog was a prominent Covenanter (this was a protestation signed throughout Scotland in 1638 in which subscribers swore to defend the Protestant religion and to resist all contrary errors). Other spellings for Hogg are Hogh, Hoig, Hoige, Hawg, Hogge and Hogis.

To those who so kindly provided the necessary information that is needed to compile a family history, -names, dates of birth, death and marriage of their families I am very grateful.

I would like to thank the following for the various ways they have contributed while I have been writing the Cleghorn Book: Marlene Bell, Mable Christie, Mildred Wilson, Inez Swan, Kay Currie, Creola Thibodeau, Phyllis Roberts, Lucille Fogarty, Inez McIntyre, Erma Bell, Blanche Thorburn, Jennie Cleghorn, Kay Cleghorn, Eva Nason, Myrtle Firlotte, Marie Firlotte, Iona Cleghorn, Bernice Haynes, Marjorie Bell, Arthur Cleghorn, Eileen Clarke, Jack and Florence Cleghorn, Alton and Madelon Cleghorn, Bess Matheson, Jackie Calzavara, Carl and Connie Cleghorn, Elaine Shirley, Joselyn Hall, Austin Dillon, Mary Corning, Dorothy Jackson, Wynn Cleghorn, Andrew Foley, Shirley Cleghorn, Allan and Pauline Cleghorn, Dorothy Cleghorn and Bill Cleghorn.

___ To Dale and Janet Cleghorn for visiting Eckford, Scotland and taking the picture of the Church and having the research done in Edinburgh to provide the name of the clergyman who married George Cleghorn and Agnes Hogg.

___ To Flossie Coburn and Janie Joyce for the loan of scrapbooks.

___ To the students who compiled cemetery lists.

___ To Rev. William Randall for having the foresight to compile the history of the Harvey area, so it could be shared with so many doing research.

___ Other sources of information have been obtained from church and family records, family bibles, birthday books, The Genealogy Dept of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter- Day Saints, The Provincial Archives of N.B. and from Land Grant Recods.

FOREWORD

Doing research on a family is like a visit into the past. Through the Cleghorn Book I have tried to touch on the lives of a family, who created a home and a community out of a forest. Of how they used these resources to provide them with the necessities of life, of the progress of this community and of how the descendants have dispersed to many parts of our country and through education and hard work have become proficient in many careers. This book will give many memories of the past. Some of my best memories of writing the Cleghorn Book will be the pleasant visits I have had, at their homes and on the phone with so many descendants of George and Agnes Cleghorn and with others who have contributed to the book.

Writing a book on Genealogy is like writing a long letter to some far away relative, endeavoring to bring them up to date on the whole family and trying not to forget anything.

I started this book in the fall of 1979. As history is never complete I have decided to publish the material I have. While doing genealogy and accumulating material, I have found church and census records may differ from family records. Members of families may also have different records. I have recorded the information as I have received it and hope as much as possible is correct.

The descendants of George Cleghorn's ten children are in chapters. A general index is found at the back of the book. The following abbreviations are used: b. -birth, d. -death, m. -married. When there is more than one marriage, the first spouse is 1) the second 2) and the third 3). When a person is descended from more than one family member, detailed information will appear only once, with cross reference page numbers included where applicable.

As the book is read and mistakes are found it will be greatly appreciated if the reader will inform me of these mistakes so they can be corrected. Other information on births, deaths and marriages etc. will also be appreciated so the Cleghorn Records can be kept up to date.

GEORGE CLEGHORN AND AGNES HOGG AND DESCENDANTS

GEORGE CLEGHORN

d. 28 March 1867

m. AGNES HOGG

b. 1825

d. 26 Jan. 1899 73 Yrs. 3 mo.

Married 14 June 1844, Eckford, Roxburgh Co. Scotland.

Married by the Rev. W. Lee.

George and his wife Agnes (Hogg) Cleghorn came to New Brunswick, Canada from Edinburgh, Scotland in what I believe was 1853. They brought five children with them, the youngest John (Joak) was only a few weeks old and according to the 1861 Census John was 8 Yrs. old in 1861. Five more children were born after they came to New Brunswick. George Cleghorn first started to take up a lot on the south-west side of Harvey Lake then he found out that the lot had already been taken. He left this lot and moved to a ridge in South Tweedside. This ridge is a very beautiful place to the east, one could look down about a mile over the gently sloping hill to the Oromocto Lake (the second largest in the province). To the west you can look down over the hill to the Magaguadavic river to the rolling hills beyond and on clear days one could see Mt. Katadin in Maine.

When the Cleghorns arrived the lake and river had plenty of fish and the woods sheltered lots of animals such as moose, bear etc. this was a help in supplying them with food.

George must have been a very ambitious man by 1861 he had cleared 40 acres and had petitioned for land across the lake at Orrs Pt. (called Horse Pt. in the petition), for 100 acres on Christie Ridge and another lot in South Tweedside which was the back lot of No.9 behind A. McKinney. He was not to see his dreams come true as he died age 48 from a heart attack leaving his widow and ten children.

For more on the Cleghorn family see page 143

JOHN CLEGHORN AND MARGARET ANN PIERCY

AND DESCENDANTS

JOHN (JOAK) CLEGHORN	m. MARGARET ANN PIERCY
b. 25 March 1852 (family record)	b. 15 April 1852
14 March 1854 (church record)	d. 27 Aug. 1942
1853 (census record)	Daughter of Thomas Piercy and Margaret Tait.
d. 4 May 1940
Son of George Cleghorn and Agnes Hogg.

When I started to do the Cleghorn Family Genealogy I thought if I knew the date of John (Joak) Cleghorn's birth I would know the year the family came over from Scotland as it was common knowledge that he was only a few weeks old some said six and some said ten weeks old when he came from Scotland but as you can see above I have found three different years. As the 1861 and 1871 census records are both the same as to his age (8yrs. in 1861 and 18yrs. in 1871) I am going to presume that it was 1853 when the family came to New Brunswick. I am still searching so perhaps someday I will come up with the right one.

According to his brother George's birthday which was 28 Aug. 1851 if John had been born 25 March 1852 there would have been only seven months between them.

John and Margaret Ann lived in South Tweedside their lot of land was virgin forest, they cleared away the trees and created a farm. Here they raised their children. They were married 16 Oct. 1877.

SOUTH TWEEDSIDE

A community, as it grows from one generation to the next, creates its own history. Names are a part of this history. We find brooks, and various other areas throughout a community are given local names, these names are rarely found on maps. I have included a map of the South Tweedside area in the Cleghorn book. I have numbered many places in the community and will take a short trip through the community giving a little bit of history on the places and people from the time it was settled, up to the present time. I have attempted to do this so they will not be forgotten.

1 ---Lot No. 216, settled on by George Cleghorn. When George Cleghorn came to South Tweedside from Scotland with his wife Agnes (Hogg) and five children the youngest only a few weeks old, the last part of their journey would have been through forest without a road to make the going easier. Although by 1853 a road for a stage coach had been put through from Fredericton to St. Andrews by way of South Tweedside. When the first settlers arrived in Harvey in 1837 (ten miles from South Tweedside) there was no road to Harvey from Fredericton. One was built in the 1840's. It is now known as the Hanwell oad. It was extended also in the 1840's from Harvey through Tweedside, South Tweedside to Brockway and connected up with the one from St. Andrews.

Before the road was built, mail was carried between St. Andrews and Fredericton on a path through the woods by someone walking the distance. Next, it was carried on horseback. When the road was finished enough to allow wagons to travel on it then a stage coach was used. This was a great accomplishment, where it had been a three day journey, now it could be done in one day. In 1973 the road was paved through South Tweedside approximately 125 years from the time it was first built.

Leaving the stage coach road, George Cleghorn would have traveled through the forest until he arrived, "On the Hill" as it came to be known. The first thing he had to do was build a shelter for his family. He must have decided the quickest and easiest way would be to build what they called "A Root House". This was made by excavating a large hole at the top and side or bend of the hill. Trees were cut to make logs and the logs were used to log up the sides, floor and roof of the shelter. He also used sods to cover the roof (as was done sometimes in the Old Country), this prevented the rain from coming through. This made a cosy, warm shelter and gave him a handy place to stay while he was building his home.

We can only imagine what their lives were like as they started cutting trees for their new home, sawing the logs into boards by hand (this was done with a hand rip saw) and getting their new home ready to live in. They were also clearing the land so they could grow crops to supply them with food. If they needed supplies they had to walk to Fredericton for them, a distance of approximately 40 miles. Five more children were being born while all this hard work was being done.

When the census was taken in 1861 approximately eight years after George Cleghorn had arrived in this country, he had cleared 40 of his 97 acres. Had 2 horses, 4 cows, 5 sheep, one swine. In the past year he had slaughtered 50 lbs. of pork, made 100 lbs. of butter, had obtained 15 lbs. of wool from his sheep, had cut 4 ton of hay from 6 acres, 200 bushels of potatoes from three-quarters of an acre and 40 bushels of timothy, this I think would be timothy seed as farmers would save some of a good timothy crop, thresh out the seed (by hand) and use this to seed their fields. Along with the fish in the nearby lake and river and meat from the wild animals in the forest they were probably making some progress.

By 1861 they had eight children, two more were born before he died in 1867. Probably due to his early death the deed was not granted until it was obtained by his son Robert in 1916. This was only a year before Robert died of a ruptured appendix. See page 1 for other land petitions. George Cleghorn had taken out before his death.

After George died, his widow continued to live on the farm. She and the family doing the work. Over the years it became the custom for the men to stay home during the summer and work on the farm, in the winter they lumbered and the spring of the year usually found them on river drives. The women did the farm chores helped by the children while the men were away.

Before coming to Canada the story has been handed down that he owned a gymnasium in Edinburgh, Scotland. He was a large, rugged built man and he installed in his sons the importance of keeping their bodies in good condition by boxing and other healthy activities.

The Cleghorn family grew up, married and some of them obtained lots of land, cleared away the trees, built homes and started farming in South Tweedside. Other families moved in and did the same and a community was born. Roads were improved, a school was built and also used for a church.

Before Robert Cleghorn died he had built a new home, near the old one. His widow Mary continued to live here with her children. The house was occupied until around 1950.

In 1949 electricity came to South Tweedside. In approximately 96 years, it had gone from one lighted candle, "On the Hill" to the drudgery of cleaning and filling kerosene lamps, to the fun of pressing a button and having lots of shining light. I have the candle holder they brought with them from Scotland.

It was not until 1952 that South Tweedside was connected with NBTel. Before this for a few years some had phones called Farmer's Telephone. These phones only connected with a small area. The Cleghorn property, "On the Hill" has been sold and the fields are full of trees again. The houses and barns have been torn down and all that remains are the empty basements but every year the lilacs and roses still bloom, reminding us of years gone by.

2 ---Lot No. 128 is the property that was settled on by William Benjamin Morrow (page 3). It was passed on to his son Jim. Jim obtained the deed for this place. Jim passed it on to his son Ed. After Ed died of a heart attack it was sold to Harry A. Corey.

Jim worked on many river drives, starting out as a young man and continued until he was around eighty. Ed lumbered and farmed. Like all the property in South Tweedside this place started out as virgin forest. Benjamin started clearing the farm, Jim continued until there were many fields that grew hay, grain etc... Today it is not being farmed and is growing back into a forest again.

3 ---Across the road from the Cleghorn farm, Fred Cleghorn (page 48) decided to build his first home. The hole can still be seen that was used for the basement. He later moved the house down the road onto another piece of property.

4 ---Down below the Cleghorn home, on the right, a son of George, William (Bill) Cleghorn built a house and barn. The house was later torn down and the barn decayed away until it fell down and even to the present time this spot on the road is known as "Bill's Old Barn". Bill moved to Flume Ridge where he lived the remainder of his life (page 119).

5 ---Although there are many turns in a road, this particular sharp turn in the road has always been known as, "The turn in the Road".

6 ---After coming around the turn and down on the left side of the road all you can see at the present time is woods, but Jack Hay who married Julia Ann Cleghorn started clearing a piece of ground here and planned on farming but he gave this up. He never built his house and he moved away.

7 ---We come to a low place in the road where a bridge has been put in and this has always been known as, "The Old Swamp".

8 ---We come to where the Cleghorn road meets the road that goes through from South Tweedside to Brockway. This spot on the road is known as, "The Road End".

9 ---On the lower side of the road at the "Road End" will be seen Lot No. 121 with the name Chester Cleghorn on it. This is the property Chester and I moved onto in 1945. We lived "On the Hill" the first two years we were married. For many years this area has been called "The Black Hollow" probably because the road dips down into a hollow, crosses a brook that is also called the Black Hollow brook. Years ago the tall tree branches met and formed an arch over the road leaving a shady piece of road to travel through, hence the name "Black Hollow".

Just before you come to the brook, there is a spring near the road and this is where we built our house. This lot was taken up on an act that allowed people to move onto a lot, build a house, clear and seed down 10 acres and live there three years. This is what we did and received the deed for the property. We later purchased the Charles Nesbitt lot between lot No 121 and the lake and also a lot up the lake that had belonged to Gary Nesbitt and had gone up for sale after he died. We later arranged to have this lot traded for lot No. 122.

10 --- Rankine's turn.

11 ---Fred's brook, named after Fred Cleghorn who lived not far from the brook. It was in this area that the first road was put through to the hill. After the new road was built, it was known as, "The Old Road".

12 ---Lots No. 18 and 19 were the lots where Fred Cleghorn moved to. These two lots have George Priestly's name on them. The lot before them has George Cheyne on it. These blocks of land along with several more were taken up by men that never lived on them. It is reported that when research was done that George Cheyne was living in England. Fred eventually obtained the deed for the Priestly lots and later his son Ferbie obtained one for the Cheyne block. Georgia Pacific Co. now owns the Cheyne block. Fred's place went up for sale and was bought by a Mr. Kileel in Fredericton, later sold to the Dead River Co. then to Hazen Patterson, it is still in the Patterson family. This piece of property runs to the lake and there are several cottages built here now as there are on many of the other lake properties.

13 ---"Top of the Turn", here the road has come up hill from a brook and makes a turn.

14 ---The Chanelly Rock, this is a place in the road where a rocky ledge sticks out. Years ago, before the road was built up, it was very sidling and caused horse drawn wagons and sleds a very difficult time, sliding and sometimes upsetting, especially when it was icy.

15 ---This is the area where they decided to build the first school. It was approximately half-way in the community. The trees were cut, the lot was cleared and the school partially built, when it mysteriously burned. The school was later built in another part of the community.

16 ---Prey's Bridge, A man by this name had something to do with building the first bridge. Since then it has been known by this name.

17 ---Lot No 17 SW with Bridges J. Hook's name on it was bought by the Simms family who own the Brush and Broom factory in Saint John. The first to own it was T.S. Simms. Every summer they came by train from Saint John to Harvey then by a hired horse and wagon to South Tweedside. They brought tents, food, and family. They pitched their tents in the sandy cove on the lake shore and had their vacation here. Mr. Simms liked to take pictures and the picture in this book of the first Cleghorn home is taken by him.

The Simms' eventually built a large cottage and it was used by four generations of Simms. The property was later sold and is now divided into lots.

South Tweedside was on the route the Indians used when they were travelling across this part of N.B. They would come up the Oromocto river, cross the Oromocto lake, cross overland to the Magaguadavic river and through to Maine and other parts of N.B. For many years arrowheads were found on a sandy beach in the area. Chester found a spring in the woods on our property that had been rocked up and when inquiring of the older residents at that time, no one had any knowledge of it. It is presumed that the spring was used by the Indians. He also found a rock not far from the spring that is an oval shape, over 6 inches long flat on both sides, pointed on both ends and over an inch thick. He found another rock that had been hollowed out and shaped and had red coloring in it. We still have the rocks.

18 ---A brook runs through a low spot in the road here. It was originally called Solomon's brook. Like many places in the country as people move in, die or move away the names of certain places will change. That is why I have written down so many of these places so they will not be forgotten. I also thought the descendants who do not live here might enjoy a little bit of history on South Tweedside.

Going back to the name of the brook, it changed from Solomon's brook to Tom Messer's brook, after Tom Messer bought the Solomon Moore place. Now that we are living on the property the brook is probably changing names again.

In the spring of the year after the ice has gone out of the lake, a fish called a sucker comes up the brook. These are caught with a snare, they won't take a hook. Years ago nearly everyone would catch a feed of suckers and cook them. Some would pickle them in a salty brine.

19 ---Starting up the hill from the brook you will now come to where our paved road begins. Part way up the hill on the left is our son Reid's home he lives here with his wife Meredith(Vail) and daughter Tiffany (page 136).

At one time a herd of cattle were found on every farm in the community. There would have been approximately 120 milch cows, today the only cows are the ones that Reid has, which are seven head of beef cattle.

20 ---At the top of the hill is our home. In 1948 we moved the house from the Black Hollow. This lot was taken out in Solomon Moore's name. It next went to Thomas Messer, then to his son Thomas (Tommy) Messer. We purchased it from him. Tommy moved his house to Manners Sutton and we moved our house onto his basement.

Chester (page 136) lumbered, farmed and did carpenter work, as a young man he also worked on river drives. In the fall many hunters came to South Tweedside from the United States and in hunting season Chester guided hunters. He started guiding in 1936 and guided for 36 years. For several years we lodged hunters in our home and hunting camp. Also during this time many in the community did the same. The following catered to hunters and/or guided -Ed Morrow, Roy Morrow, Glen Cleghorn, Harry Cleghorn, Dale Cleghorn, Reid Cleghorn, Chester Messer, Bert Messer, Arthur Cleghorn, Alton Cleghorn, Colin Cleghorn, Almont Cleghorn, Elvin Cleghorn, Jack Cleghorn, John Bell, Ronald Bell, Eldridge Cleghorn and Russel Cleghorn.

21-Lot No. 16 was taken out in Annie McPherson's name. It next went to Thomas (Tom) Messer and this is where he built his house and barn. His wife Janie (Hood) was the lady (midwife) who went to the homes in the community when a new baby was being born. She helped at the birth of many of the babies in the community.

Tom's grandson Chester Messer owns the property now. The house is now lived in by Chester's son Bert and his wife Shirley (Curtis) and their four children Chris, Curtis, Crena and Aaron. Bert is a mechanic and has his own trucking business. Chester and Joyce built a new home down by the lake. Chester is a carpenter and Joyce was an upholsterer until she retired.

Chester and Joyce have one daughter Doreen who is married to Allison Warren and they have one son Troy. Allison is a mechanic and electrician. They live just past Oakley brook down by the lake.

22 -A piece of ground was set aside between Tom Messer's and Tom McFarland's for the new school after the other one burnt. Here it remained until in the 1950's when country schools were sold and the pupils from SouthTweedside were taken by bus to Harvey Station. The school was used for a church and services were held each Sunday. In the early days the members walked or travelled by horse and carriage. Later the services were discontinued as cars became more numerous. Those wishing to go to church now must travel to one of the churches near Harvey Station.

23 -Lot No. 15 Front is the lot settled on by Adam McFarland, he built a log cabin on the lower side of the road, later a house was built. His son Thomas (Tom) McFarland obtained lot No. 15 rear, he built a nice large home on the upper side of the road. It became the stage coach stop, as it was approximately half-way between St. Andrews or St. Stephen and Fredericton. Here they would change horses, have a bite to eat and continue on their way. Tom was married to Alice Messer. Their son Howard always made his home here.

This property is now owned by Tom's granddaughter Vercelia (Little) who is married to Wallace (Mike) Gass. They have a cottage at the lake and their son Randford and his wife Jean (Simpson) and their twins Michael and Heather have their home at the lake.

24-The next two lots were owned by Clarks, Thomas and William. George Cleghorn, son of the first George bought these in 1876. His daughter Cora lived here until her death. Her husband Arthur still lives here. Arthur farmed and was a lumberman, he is now retired. See page 53 and 68.

25 -On the opposite side of the road from Arthur's house his son Alton and his wife Madelon (Hood) and their family live. Alton drives the school bus for the Harvey School District. See page 53.

26 -George Cleghorn's farm was divided and the Thomas Clark place was given to George's son George A. (Jordy). He built a house and barn and farmed. His son Colin lives here now. Colin was employed by the Saint John General Hospital until he retired. Lot No. 128 found at the rear of this lot with George A. Cleghorn's name on it was petitioned for July 4, 1896.

27 --- Jordy's other son Almont lives here. Mont worked in Toronto before he retired.

28 ---Next to Almont's is a house owned by his son Hollis (Holly). Holly lives in Ontario and rents the house.

29 ---This brook was called, "Joak's Brook", now it is quite often referred to as "Jack's Brook".

30 ---Lot No. 13 was more land taken out in George Cheyne's name. It was settled on by John (Joak) Cleghorn, son of the first George Cleghorn. It later went to his son Elvin and his wife Vi (Thompson). Elvin's son Jack and his wife Florence (Corey) live here now. Jack worked for a number of years for the Harvey Creamery. He is now employed by Wetzel Swan who farms and has the Shell Oil Dealership for the area. John (Joak) Cleghorn petitioned for a 100 acre lot across the Oromocto lake at Orrs (Horse) Point. Next to the one his father George Cleghorn had petitioned for. See page 75, 90 and 91.

31 ---Jimmie Little has a home by the lake, he lives here with his wife Ann (Briggs) and two daughter's Katie and Jennifer Lynn. Jimmie is a teacher and taught this past year in Summerside, P.E.I.

32 ---Lot No. 12 was settled on by Jack Bell and his wife Jean(Cleghorn). It later went to his son Ed and his wife Hazel (Simmons). Page 15 and 44. Today the farm is owned by Ed's son John and the house by his other son Ronald.

33 ---John Bell lives here with his wife Marjorie (Hood). Page 44. John and Marjorie were employed by the Harvey Hospital until they retired. Marjorie was the dietician and John was in charge of Ambulance and Maintenance for the hospital.

34 ---Across the road from John Bell's, his sister Iona Cleghorn lives. Page 44, 129. Russel and Iona did some farming. Russel worked in the woods and on river drives. Their daughter Sharon was with the R.C.A.F for several years.

Before Russel and Iona built their home here, another house had been built on this lot. It was lived in by Arch Chisholm and his wife Jess (Cleghorn). The house was later bought by T. Kay Craig and moved approximately eight miles to a spot that is now next door to our fire station. Kay renovated it and still lives there.

35 ---Bernice Haynes. a sister of John and Iona's lives here. See page 9 and 45. Robert (Bob) Haynes was a mechanic. He spent some time in Newfoundland while the Construction Co. he was working for was building the Trans Canada Highway.

36 ---Lot No. II, William (Bill) Bell lived here. After his death his son Louie lived here. Page 17. Although Louie was blind, he carried on farming and visited his neighbours, you could always hear Louie coming by his own special whistle. Louie always had a housekeeper, one that was with him for many years was Mrs. Mae Hanson from St. Stephen. She was with him when he died suddenly of a heart attack. Louie's sister Aggie lived in the house for a few years until she died. After Aggie died the place went to Edison Messer, then to his son Lawrence Messer. The house but not the property was sold to Meryl Bigger, who now lives there with his wife Avis (Charters) and their three children Jimmy, Joanne and Jeannie.

William (Bill) Bell's wife Ellen was a sister to Thomas Messer(No.21). Their father and mother were William Messer and Margaret Bell (Margaret was a sister to Jack Bell, page 15). William Messer's brother, Walter Messer married Isobel Speedy and their daughter Alice married Thomas (Tom) McFarland (No. 23).

37 ---Everett McArthur and his wife Lillian (Hunter) built a new home here in 1979. They have retired from a bakery business in McAdam. Everett moved to N.B. from P.E.I. and Lillian was born in Scotland.

38 ---Donald (Donnie) Gaynor with his wife Shelly (Messer) live here beside the lake with their two children Lindsay and Sarah.

39 ---James (Dewey) Doherty lives here with his wife Joanne (Adams) and their two children Michael and Timothy.

40 ---Clark's spring.

41 ---The Girl Guides now have their lodge and camp ground here.

42 ---The place on the road here was known as Sand Hill. Due to road renovations the little hill has gone. The gravel pit in this area has been made into a garbage disposal area. At one time it was known as Paulke's Pit. Frank Paulke moved to the area from Charlotte Co. and built a house and barn here. His wife's name was Dolly, Frank and Dolly had a small store in their home. Frank was also the sheep shearer for the community. The charge for shearing each sheep was .10¢

43 ---This is Oakley's brook, names after the people who lived in a house beside the brook. Jack Oakley lived here with his wife Mary (James). They had two daughter's Emma and Mary (Polly) and one son Jack. They moved to the Rusagonis area. For awhile Jim and Josie Cleghorn (Page 50 and 76) lived here. Jim became very ill and died while living here. The house was vacant for many years and eventually decayed away and fell down.

---Pupils from South Tweedside who won awards when they graduated are -

Cynthia Cleghorn -Governor Generals medal, Harvey High School p.44

Dale Cleghorn -Highest Award from Lady Dunn, St. Andrews p.136

Larry Cleghorn -Highest Award from Lady Dunn, St. Andrews p.53

OROMOCTO LAKE -The lake in South Tweedside named the "North Branch Oromocto Lake", is 12 miles long and 3 miles wide. It has always been a very important part of the community. It provides recreation such as swimming, boating and fishing in the summer. The winter also finds the lake a busy place, too. The ice usually becomes thick enough to hold cars and when the ice is just right, a tour around the lake is a pleasant trip but should be done only by those who know the lake. Snowmobiles are now a familiar sight on the lake in winter.

When the ice is smooth, the lake has been a place for skaters to enjoy for many years. Like everything else skates have changed over the years too. The first skates they used were called, "reachers". They were blades that were strapped or tied onto some mode of winter foot-wear. Chester and his brothers wore these when they crossed the lake to tend their traps, they would travel many miles in a day, skating on the lakes and streams and snowshoeing through the woods to tend a trapline. Many of the men used this type of skate when they skated across the lake to travel to the lumber camps on the other side of the lake.

When there were logs to be hauled, it was a familiar sight to see teams of horses and sleds loaded with logs crossing the lake in the wintertime. We do not see this anymore as today logs are hauled by truck on roads constructed throughout the woods.

There are many cottages built around the lake and today with phones and hydro at the lake and modern machinery to clear the snow from the roads in winter, more are building their homes by the lake. There is no public beach on the lake, the roads leading to the lake are private ones.
